Name And Address Of Defendant's Attorney

This matter involves issues relating to child custody or visitation. The parties are legally required, or have consented, to participate in the court's mediation program for custody and visitation disputes. There has has not been a showing of good cause which would allow, or require, the court to waive mediation.

It is ORDERED, pursuant to G.S. 50-13.1, that:

- 1. The child custody and visitation issues in this case be referred to mediation, and that further proceedings, including discovery, relating to these issues are stayed. The parties are ordered to attend the orientation proceeding at the date, time and location shown below, and then to attend the first mediation session.

Notice To Parties: If you fail to attend the orientation or first mediation session, you may be held in contempt of court.
